

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

- To develop an understanding of basic economics concepts and relate them to current issues
- To demonstrate how economics can be integrated into a variety of classroom situations.
- To provide materials, activities, and lesson ideas for teaching economics across subjects and grade levels.
- To familiarize teachers with the economics standards and assessment within the NE Social Studies Standards and Business Education framework.

Virtual Economics 3.0 is one of the many teacher resources featured in the courses.

The University of Nebraska-Lincoln is an equal opportunity educator and employer with a comprehensive plan for diversity.

BECOME A GUFFEY SCHOLAR, RECEIVE REDUCED TUITION

Attention Nebraska Teachers!

One hundred fifty dollars per credit hour ($150) of the tuition for each course will be reimbursed by the UNL Center for Economic Education to qualifying Nebraska teachers who apply for and receive the Guffey Economic Education Scholarship(s).

Guffey Scholarships are available to first 10 Nebraska teachers who pre-register in each course. This scholarship makes the final cost of each 3 credit course $463.55; and $167.85 for the 1 credit course.

Current graduate tuition is $237.50 per credit hour plus fees of $201.05 for the 3 credit courses, totaling $913.55, before the scholarship) per course. Total cost for the 1 credit course would be $317.85 ($237.50 plus fees of $80.35). These costs do not include the summer session registration fee or graduate admission application fees.

You could potentially earn 6+ graduate credits this summer at a highly reduced rate!

How to apply for the Guffey Scholarship:

Guffey Scholarship applicants must write a short essay (no more than 1 page) addressing the following two statements:

- a) Why you should be selected as a Guffey Scholar?
- b) How will this course help you advance your students' level of economic literacy?

Apply online at www.nebraskacouncil.org

Scholarships are limited and available to the first 10 Nebraska teachers in each course so complete the online application TODAY. Educators may receive multiple scholarships if registering for more than one course. If you are paying by credit card, or the "bill me" option, your scholarship award will be automatically deducted.
